FLORIDA FOOTBALL 2008

- With its 24-14 win over top-ranked Oklahoma in the 2009 FedEx BCS National Championship Game, the University of Florida football team won its third national title in school history, and the second in the last three years. The Gators also won their second Southeastern Conference Championship in the past three seasons and the eighth in program history with a 31-20 defeat of No. 1 Alabama on Dec. 6 in Atlanta. Florida finished the season with a 13-1 overall record and was 7-1 in SEC play.

- Over the last three seasons, Florida is tied for the most wins in the nation among FBS schools:

Team	Wins
Florida	35
Boise State	35
Oklahoma	34
Southern Cal	34

SEASON NOTES

- Florida is the only school in the nation to win three outright national titles since 1990. The 2006 and 2008 national championships were decided in the BCS National Title Game, and Florida was the unanimous pick in all four major polls in 1996. Nebraska also has three national titles in that time frame (1994, '95, '97), but the 1997 title was split with Michigan.

National Titles since 1990 (*title was split)

School	Titles	Years
Florida	3	2008, 2006, 1996
Nebraska	3	1997*, 1995, 1994
Florida State	2	1999, 1993
LSU	2	2007, 2003*
Miami (Fla.)	2	2001, 1991*
Southern California	2	2004, 2003*
Nine Schools Tied	1

- Since the SEC began in 1933, Florida is the only school to win three outright national titles. Alabama has seven national titles since 1933, but only two of them were outright titles (1979, '92).

SEC National Champions since 1933 (league's inception)

School	Outright	Split	Total
Florida	3	0	3
Alabama	2	5	7
LSU	2	1	3
Tennessee	2	0	1
Georgia	1	0	1
Arkansas	0	1	1
Ole Miss	0	1	1
Auburn	0	1	1

- Florida finished the 2008 season with a 13-1 record, equalling the single-season school record for victories set in 2006. UF's 13 wins on the year tied them with five other schools for the SEC single-season record.

- The Gators' 2008 schedule was ranked the second-toughest in the nation according to the NCAA. Both of Florida's previous national championships (1996, 2006) came when UF played the nation's toughest schedule.

- UF finished the season ranked first in the final USA Today Coaches' Poll, marking the 19th-consecutive season that the Gators have been included in the final version of that ranking. That streak is the longest in the nation, followed by Texas' 12-straight seasons. During that streak, Florida has finished in the top-10 on 10 occasions.

GATOR STORYLINES

- The 2008 University of Florida football team's 24-14 victory over Oklahoma in the 2009 FedEx BCS National Championship Game was the school's third national title. UF won its first in 1996 (52-20 over No. 1 Florida State in the 1997 Sugar Bowl) and its second in 2006 (41-14 over No. 1 Ohio State in the 2007 Tostitos BCS National Championship Game).

- Florida finished the 2008 season with the highest-scoring offense in school and SEC history, totaling 611 points. Florida now has the top three highest-scoring offenses in SEC history (1996, 2007, 2008), two of which came under Coach Meyer.

- UF tied a school record with 13 wins on the season, equalling the mark set in the 2006 National Championship season. Florida has won 12 or more games in a season four times (1995, '96, '06, '08).

- Head Coach Urban Meyer is the second-winningest active coach in college football, with an 83-17 (.830) record, among individuals who have been a head coach for at least five full seasons.

- Quarterback Tim Tebow is the only player in college football history to win the Heisman Trophy, Maxwell Trophy, Davey O'Brien Award and been part of a team that won two national titles.

- Florida won its fourth BCS bowl game and is tied with LSU for the most BCS bowl wins by an SEC team and second in the nation (Southern Cal has six wins).

- Florida became just the second school to win two BCS National Championships, after LSU accomplished that feat in 2007. Head Coach Urban Meyer became the first coach to win two BCS National Championships.

- UF became the fourth school in the modern era to win two outright national titles in three years. Schools that have won outright recognized national titles twice in three years in the modern era (1946-present) are listed below:

Oklahoma - 1955, '56
 Miami - 1987, '89 ('91 was shared)
 Nebraska - 1994, '95 ('97 was split)
Florida - 2006, '08

- Here are the other instances in which it has happened, but at least one of the polls was split:

Notre Dame - 1946, '47, '49 USC - 1972, '74
 Michigan - 1947, '48 Nebraska - 1970, '71
 Tennessee - 1950, '51 Oklahoma - 1974, '75
 Maryland - 1952, '53 Alabama - 1978, '79
 Alabama - 1964, '65 USC - 2003, '04
 Texas - 1969, '70

- The Gator football team won the school's 22nd national championship. The men's basketball team, coached by Billy Donovan, had brought home the most recent hardware with an 84-75 triumph over Ohio State on April 2, 2007, at the Georgia Dome in Atlanta for its second-straight championship. Below is the complete list of Florida's title-winning squads:

Men's Golf (4) - 1968, 1973, 1993, 2001
 Women's Tennis (4) - 1992, 1996, 1998, 2003

- Florida made its 18th-straight bowl appearance to extend its current school record. The mark is the longest active streak among SEC teams (Georgia is second with 12) and represents the second-longest in the nation (Florida State is first with 26).

- The Gators have won eight SEC Championships, the most of any school in the SEC since 1975. They improved to 7-2 in the SEC Championship Game, having collected wins in 1993, 1994, 1995, 1996, 2000, 2006 and 2008. UF won the 1991 SEC crown and the league's title game began in 1992.

- Florida played a total of 11 teams that made it to bowl games in 2008, tied for the most in the nation with Boston College and N.C. State. The Gators had a record of 10-1 in those 11 games, while Boston College was 6-5 and N.C. State was 4-7.

- The 13 teams that UF defeated finished the season with 17 combined wins against opponents which were ranked in the AP Top-25 poll at the time the game was played.

- Florida finished the regular season with an 11-1 record to become only the third team in school history (1995, 2006) to win 11 games prior to a conference title or bowl game.

- The Gators were 6-0 against ranked opponents in 2008, beating then-No. 4 LSU, No. 8 Georgia, No. 24 South Carolina, No. 23 Florida State, No. 1 Alabama and No. 1 Oklahoma. No other team in the nation beat six ranked opponents.

- Florida is the third team to win the BCS National Championship with an undefeated record against AP top-25 ranked teams. Oklahoma (2000) and Tennessee (1998) also went 6-0 against ranked teams.

- Since 2005, Florida has the second-most wins against AP top-25 ranked teams in the nation, owning a 17-5 record. Oklahoma has 18 wins, and Georgia, Ohio State and LSU each have 14 wins against top-25 opponents.

- The 2008 Gators became the first team in school history to defeat Miami, Tennessee, Georgia and Florida State in the regular season, emerge victorious in the SEC Championship Game and win its bowl game.

- On Nov. 15, Florida defeated South Carolina, 56-6, to finish undefeated in the SEC East for the 10th time in school history.

- Florida's 24-8 record in the Southeastern Conference over the past four seasons (Urban Meyer's four years at UF) leads the league.

Florida	24-8
Georgia/LSU	22-10
Alabama/Auburn	20-12

- The Gators ended the season with a 10-game winning streak, tied for the second-longest streak in the nation (tied with Southern Cal, Utah had 13). The winning streak is the longest in one season in school history since the 1996 season, when UF opened the year with a 10-game winning streak. The longest win streak in UF history occurred during the 1995 season, when the Gators won 12-straight games to open the season.

Longest Win Streaks in UF history

- 12 - 1995 Season (Sept. 2, 1995 - Jan. 1, 1996)
- 11 - 1927-28 Seasons (Nov. 12, 1927 - Nov. 29, 1928)
- 11 - 2006-07 Seasons (Oct. 28, 2006 - Sept. 28, 2007)
- 10 - 2008-present (Oct. 4, 2008 - present)
- 10 - 1996 Season (Aug. 31, 1996 - Nov. 29, 1996)

- Florida faced eight of the nation's top-30 defenses (based on final total defense rankings) and six rushing defenses that finished in the top-30. The Gators ended the season ranked 15th in total offense (445.07 yards/game) and 10th in rushing offense (231.14 yards/game).

- Florida made its 15th January bowl game appearance in the past 16 years. The FedEx BCS Championship Game marked the 19th January bowl game in school history.

- The Gators improved their record to 17-19 (.472) all-time in bowl games, and are now 2-4 against members of the Big 12 Conference. Before defeating Oklahoma, the Gators had not faced a Big 12 foe in a bowl since suffering a 62-24 defeat to Nebraska in the Fiesta Bowl on Jan. 2, 1996.

THE PLAN TO WIN

- The following four items outline Head Coach Urban Meyer's Plan to Win:

No. 1 - PLAY GREAT DEFENSE (national rankings)

- Interceptions vs. top-25 teams (1st, 14)
- Interceptions (T-1st, 26)
- Scoring defense (4th, 12.9)
- Total defense (9th, 285.3)
- Rushing defense (15th, 105.4)
- Passing defense (20th, 179.86)

- Florida's first-team defense did not allow a touchdown in five of the last eight games and only gave up five total over the stretch (two rushing).

- School-record five interceptions returned for touchdowns last year tied with Missouri and Boston College for first nationally. The NCAA record is seven by Tennessee (1971). In addition, UF had at least one interception in 13 of 14 games in 2008. UF scored seven non-offensive touchdowns (5 defense, 2 special teams) during the season and the UF defense and special teams gave the Gator offense the ball inside the opponent 35-yard line an additional 16 times. The UF offense scored the first 15 times (14 TDs, 1 FG) before running out the clock at the end of the SEC Championship Game against Alabama.

WHAT'S NEW WITH THE GATORS...

- Florida outscored opponents, 143-13, in the first quarter over the last nine games and 167-20 on the year.
- UF allowed just five first-half touchdowns all season and outscored opponents, 328-58, before the half. The Gators also forced opponents to punt 45 times in the first half in 2008.
- In nine of 14 games, UF did not allow its opponents' offense to score a touchdown in at least one half (Hawaii, Tennessee, Arkansas, Georgia, Vanderbilt, Florida State, first; Miami, Kentucky, South Carolina entire game).
- The Gators allowed only nine rushing touchdowns on the season (T-10th nationally) and 12 passing (T-13 nationally).
- UF's 26 interceptions were 14 more than the team had a year ago and are the most in school history. The previous mark was 24, set during the 2000 season. The record started being kept in 1977.
- UF's school-record 527 interception return yards ranked second nationally and UF's 304 against top-25 teams led the nation.

No. 2 - TURNOVERS

- Florida's +22 turnover margin was second nationally and set a school record. The previous season best was +19 in 2002.
- UF was the last team in the nation to turn the ball over in 2008.
- UF did not turn the ball over in six of 14 games in 2008.
- 13 turnovers tied for the fourth-lowest total in the nation.
- The Gators threw only five interceptions, tied for the fewest in the nation.

No. 3 - SCORE IN THE RED ZONE

- UF finished the season third nationally in red zone defense and tied for eighth nationally in red zone offense.
- The Gators scored on 62-of-68 (.912) trips inside the red zone, with 51 touchdowns and 11 field goals, and were perfect in eight of 14 games. Florida was 4-of-4 in the red zone against Oklahoma, scoring three touchdowns and kicking one field goal. UF was 5-of-6 (4 TD, 1 FG) versus Alabama and ran out the clock inside of the 20 to end the game.

No. 4 - WIN THE KICKING GAME

- UF blocked nine kicks: five punts, three FG and one extra point to match the school record of nine set in 1995. The five punts matched 2006 for the most under Coach Meyer for UF. Seven of UF's 16 blocked punts under Coach Meyer have come on its opponents' opening drive of the game.
- Only seven of Florida's 14 opponents this year started a drive in UF territory. Overall, UF started 40 drives in opponent territory and the Gators scored on 28 of those.
- UF averaged 14.1 yards per punt return (ninth nationally).
- Punt return defense allowed 5.6 yards per return (20th nationally).
- Florida punted only 44 times last season (T-11th lowest nationally).

TIME ON HIS SIDE

- Including bye weeks, bowl games, mid-week games and season openers, Urban Meyer is 27-3 (.900) all-time when having more than one week to prepare for a game.

RECAPPING THE 2009 FEDEX BCS NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

- The Gators' 24-14 victory over Oklahoma capped their second national championship in three years. Florida became the fourth-straight second-ranked team to defeat the #1 team in the nation in the BCS National Championship.
- Quarterback Tim Tebow was named the game's Most Valuable Player, the seventh quarterback to earn the award, after collecting 340 yards of total offense (231 passing, 109 rushing). His total yardage was the third-best pass-rush total in a BCS Championship game, behind only Texas' Vince Young (467 in 2006) and Miami's Ken Dorsey (362 yards in 2002).
- Wide receiver Percy Harvin ran for 122 yards, the third-best rushing game in a BCS Championship Game. Harvin and Tebow each rushed for over 100 yards, becoming the first set of teammates to accomplish that feat in the same BCS National Championship Game.
- Florida's clinching touchdown drive in the fourth quarter consumed 6:52, marking the longest scoring drive (by time) in a BCS Championship Game.

- Carlos Dunlap blocked an Oklahoma field-goal attempt in the third quarter, the ninth blocked kick of the season for the Gators, which tied the school record set in 1995. Dunlap was named the game's Defensive Most Valuable Player after recording four tackles, one and a half tackles-for-loss and half a sack.

- Florida held Oklahoma's offense to 363 total yards (107 rushing, 256 passing), nearly 200 yards below its season average. The Gators' defense held the Sooners to just two touchdowns, keeping them 40 points below their season average. OU's offense entered the game considered the best offensive team in college football history. They had averaged 562.0 total yards of offense (205.5 rushing, 356.5 passing) and 54.0 points per game. They had scored 702 total points through the Big 12 Championship Game, more than any team in NCAA History.

- Entering the BCS National Championship, Oklahoma averaged 80 offensive plays per game. The Florida defense limited the Sooners to just 70 offensive plays and 25:03 of possession time.

UF HEAD COACH URBAN MEYER

- Florida head coach Urban Meyer led the Gators to 13 victories last season, tying the school record set in 2006. In his four years with the program, Meyer has combined to go 44-9 (.830).

- Urban Meyer finished the 2008 season as the second-winningest active coach in college football, with an 83-17 (.830) career record, among individuals who have been a head coach for at least five full seasons.

- By guiding the Gators to their 24-14 win over Oklahoma, Urban Meyer improved his UF record against ranked teams to 17-5 (.773). In 2008, Meyer and the Gators were 6-0 against ranked teams, the only team in the nation to win six games against ranked teams. It is the only team in UF history to go undefeated against ranked teams.

- Florida has been ranked in the AP, Coaches' and BCS polls each week since Urban Meyer's arrival in Gainesville, which is a streak of 65-straight AP and Coaches' polls.

COACH MEYER IN BOWL GAMES

- With Florida's win over Oklahoma in the FedEx BCS National Championship, Coach Meyer now has five bowl victories in the last six years.

- The FedEx BCS National Championship Game was the 13th bowl game UF head coach Urban Meyer has participated in (all as a coach). As a head coach, Meyer is 5-1 in bowl games. The 2007 season ended with a 41-35 setback to Michigan in the 2008 Capital One Bowl in Orlando. To cap the 2006 season, Coach Meyer led the Gators to a national title with a 41-14 win over Ohio State in the BCS National Championship Game. In 2005, he guided UF to its first bowl victory in four years with a 31-24 triumph over Iowa in the Outback Bowl. At Utah, Coach Meyer led the Utes to a 17-0 win over Southern Miss in the 2003 Liberty Bowl and in 2004 Utah defeated Pittsburgh, 35-7, at the Fiesta Bowl. Overall, Coach Meyer's teams have out-scored opponents, 183-100, in bowl games.

- In 2004, Coach Meyer made history as the head coach at Utah by leading the Utes to the Fiesta Bowl. That season, Utah became the first school from a non-Bowl Championship Series conference to earn a berth in a BCS Bowl. The Utes defeated Pittsburgh in that game, 35-7, on Jan. 1, 2005.

- Coach Meyer is one of only four coaches to direct his team to a top-12 finish in the final version of the BCS poll in at least four of the last five seasons:

Coach	School	Seasons
Urban Meyer	Utah/Florida	2004, 2006, 2007, 2008

TO THE VICTORS GO THE SPOILS

- Florida claimed its eighth SEC Championship in school history by knocking off top-ranked and previously unbeaten Alabama at the Georgia Dome on Dec. 6, 31-20. The Gators' roll call of title-winning teams occurred in 1991, '93, '94, '95, '96, 2000, '06 and '08. The victory was also UF's league-leading seventh in the SEC Championship Game.

LEADING OPPONENTS

- Florida trailed just twice in its 14 games in 2008. Overall, UF trailed for 30:54 of the 840 minutes of play during the last season. The biggest deficit the Gators faced was seven points against Ole Miss (24-17, 31-24). Entering the SEC Championship Game, the Gators had been behind for 15:38 all season and not since Sept. 27.

NEED FOR SPEED

- Coach Meyer has stated he wants Florida to be the "fastest team in America." UF has a dozen players who have clocked a 40-time of 4.4 or less (seven on offense, five on defense). Of UF's 82 touchdowns last season, 48 were scored by players that are among the fastest 12 on the team.

- Florida's Percy Harvin (9.4) ranked first in the nation in yards per carry among all qualifying players. Chris Rainey (7.8) ranked fifth in the nation and Jeff Demps ranked sixth (7.8), while no other SEC player ranked inside of the top 30.

- Only four players in the nation averaged more than 20 yards a carry with a min. of seven carries

WHAT'S NEW WITH THE GATORS...

2008 TEAM RECORDS

The Offense

- The Florida offense scored 611 points, the most in a single season in SEC and UF history. UF averaged 43.6 points per game, also a school record.

- UF scored 42-or-more points in seven-straight games and also won eight-straight games by 28-or-more points, both school and SEC records.

- Junior quarterback Tim Tebow rushed for three touchdowns against Georgia, passing Emmitt Smith for first place all-time in rushing touchdowns in Florida history.

The Defense

- The Gators intercepted two passes in the BCS National Championship Game to bring their season total to 26, overcoming the previous school record of 24.

- Sophomore safety Ahmad Black and junior linebacker Brandon Spikes each returned two interceptions for touchdowns, equalling the school's single-season record.

Special Teams

- Junior return man Brandon James set the single-season punt return yardage mark with 510 yards. James is also the school record-holder in career punt return yardage, kick return yardage and total return yardage.

- James returned a punt 78-yards for a touchdown against Tennessee for his fourth career punt return touchdown, equalling the mark set by Jacquez Green (1995-97).

- Carlos Dunlap blocked a field goal against Oklahoma for his third blocked kick of the season and the team's ninth blocked kick, equalling the school record that was set in 1995.

- Dunlap's three blocked kicks tied the school record.

- Kicker Jonathan Phillips converted 78 extra points, the most in school history.

in a game last season and Florida had two of those performances (Harvin, 20.9, vs. South Carolina, eight carries for 162 yards; Rainey, 20.3, vs. The Citadel, seven carries for 142 yards).

BALANCED TEAM

- Florida was the only school in the nation ranked inside the top 10 in both scoring offense and scoring defense. The Gators were fourth in scoring offense (43.6) and fourth in scoring defense (12.9). The SEC had six teams ranked in the top 25 in scoring defense, while the Gators were the only SEC team in the top 25 in scoring offense.

SENIOR LEADERSHIP

- The 2009 FedEx BCS National Championship Game marked the final game for the 2008 senior class. The group won two national titles, two SEC titles and three January bowl games. The group posted an overall record of 44-9 (.830) and were 24-8 (.750) in SEC action. The class held a sterling 25-2 (.926) record in "The Swamp". The members of the 2008 senior class are: Curtis Carr, Tate Casey, John Curtis, Jamaal Deveaux, Javier Estopinan, Andrew Fritze, Brad Hiers, Cornelius Ingram, Andrew Johnson, Bobby Kane, Kestahn Moore, Louis Murphy, Kyle Newell, Jonathan Phillips, Kyle Pratt, Butch Rowley, James Smith, Jim Tartt, Greg Taussig, Phil Trautwein and Jason Watkins.

- With 44 wins, the 2008 senior class tied for second for victories in a four-year span at Florida. The 1996 senior class compiled a record of 45-6-1 (.875), with the school's first national title (1996), four-consecutive SEC crowns and two Sugar Bowl triumphs. The win in Miami enabled the 2008 group to equal the 1997 (44-6-1) and 1998 (44-6) senior classes.

THE TEAM

- Florida was 13-1 for the first time since 2006 and won at least 11 games for the fifth time in school history (1993, '95, '96, '06, '08). Florida did not lose to an SEC East team last year and has gone undefeated against division teams 10 times in school history.

- The Gators scored 611 points in 2008, eclipsing the previous school record of 559 points set during the 1996 season. The total is also the highest in SEC history. Meyer's 2007 squad totaled 552 points, now third-highest at UF.

- Florida was the first team in the history of the Southeastern Conference to win six-straight league games by 28-plus points. UF scored 30-or-more points on all of its league opponents in the regular season for the first time in school history and tacked on 31 more against Alabama.

- Entering the SEC Championship Game, Florida had scored 42-or-more points in each of its last seven games, which was the longest active streak in the nation. UF is the only league team in the history of the SEC to score 42-or-more points in seven-straight games. UF's streak was the longest of Coach Meyer's career.

- On its way to a 12-0 start, Alabama had never trailed in the second half this season until the Gators countered with a 14-point fourth quarter to turn a 20-17 deficit into a 31-20 triumph.

- Florida entered the SEC Championship Game having won eight-straight games, all by 28 points or more. The Gators were the first major-college team to win eight-consecutive games by that margin since Minnesota in 1903. The Gophers had nine-straight that season, but five of the games were against non-major competition, and two of them were against high school teams. No other team has done it since 1900. Eight Ivy League schools did it in the 1800s. (thanks to Jim Howell of jhowell.net)

WHAT'S NEW WITH THE GATORS...

- The 2008 UF team was the first in school history to go undefeated against ranked opponents. UF had the nation's best record against ranked teams last season (6-0) and was the only SEC school not to lose to a top-25 team. The Gators were among seven teams nationally that played more than one top-25 opponent last year and did not lose. Florida's 17 rushing touchdowns against ranked teams last season was second in the nation. UF's 42.7 points per game against ranked teams were the second-highest among teams that played three-or-more ranked opponents. Florida defeated six ranked teams last season by a combined score of 256-86 (avg. margin of victory 28.3 ppg).

- Florida's SEC record over the last three seasons (19-5) leads the league.

- The Gators scored 45 points against Florida State in their regular-season finale, which were the most ever by a Gator team in Doak Campbell Stadium. Under Coach Meyer, the Gators have outscored FSU, 145-48. UF scored 28 first-half points, which was the first time the Seminoles had allowed that many since 1989. In addition, UF ran for 317 yards, which was the most FSU has allowed since Clemson had 321 in 1995. UF has rushed for 596 yards combined in each of the last two games vs. the Seminoles (7.1 yards per carry).

- Florida had seven-or-more big plays (20+ yards) in 11 of its 14 games last season. On the season, UF had 121 big plays for 4,194 yards (34.6 avg).

- Florida rushed for 42 touchdowns last season (previous school record was 39, 2007). UF's 81 rushing touchdowns over the past two seasons rank second nationally and its 26 against ranked opponents were second in the nation behind Oklahoma (27).

- UF's 1,504 rushing yards against top-25 opponents were the most in the nation. Overall, UF rushed for 3,236 yards last year, which rank as the second-highest total in school history (3,326, 1975).

- Florida had four players with more than 600 yards rushing last year. The total led the nation, as four schools had three who had done so (Fresno State, Georgia Tech, Oregon, Southern California).

- UF converted 65.0 (26-for-40) percent of its third-down conversions in the first quarter last season and limited the opposition to just a .213 (10-for-47) clip in the opening stanza.

- Florida was the only school in the SEC that did not have a senior starting on defense. Overall, four upperclassmen started on defense for the Gators, which was the lowest total in the league. The team by class:

11	Seniors	12.9 pct.
14	Juniors	16.5 pct.
31	Sophomores	36.5 pct.
9	Redshirt Freshmen	10.6 pct.
20	True Freshmen	23.5 pct.

- The chart below shows how the Gators seized control in each of their wins last season:

Kentucky	Led 35-0 before UK scored; Scored more points on UK than any other opp. before UK picked up a first down or completed a pass
Georgia	Led 49-3 before allowing a touchdown
Vanderbilt	Led 42-0 before allowing a touchdown, UF scored more points on Vanderbilt (28) in the first 18 min. of the game than the Commodores had allowed in any game all year
South Carolina	Led 28-0 and scored more points on USC than any other opp. this season before USC scored. UF scored 21 points in a 135-second span late in the first quarter
The Citadel	Led 42-0 before The Citadel scored.
Florida State	Led 38-9 before Florida State scored a touchdown
Alabama	Trailing 20-17 entering the fourth quarter, UF scored a pair of touchdowns, held the ball for 11:55 and held the Tide to one yard in the final period
Oklahoma	Tied 14-14 in the fourth quarter, UF kicked a field goal and used an 11-play, 76-yard drive that took 6:52 off the clock for the clinching touchdown

Aug. 31, 2009 (Mon.)

- Florida head coach Urban Meyer will hold his first weekly press conference along with selected Florida players.

Sept. 5, 2009 (Sat.)

- Florida will open the 2009 season at home against Charleston Southern.

- Florida's 50-point win vs. South Carolina was the largest against the Gamecocks since a 56-point loss (63-7) to Florida on Nov. 11, 1995.

- Florida defeated Tennessee for the fourth-straight year to improve Coach Meyer's record versus the Vols to 4-0. Coach Meyer became the first coach in UF history to lead the Gators to wins on his first two trips to Knoxville. Tim Tebow became the third quarterback in Florida history to lead UF to wins in his first two career starts against the Vols (Kerwin Bell, Danny Wuerffel).

- In Florida's first road game of the year (30-6 win at Tennessee), 39 of the 70 players on the roster were underclassmen. Sixteen players on the Florida roster had never made a road trip and 21 had never played in a road game.

- Florida defeated then-No. 4 LSU, 51-21, to snap the Tigers' 23-game winning streak in regulation and their 19-game winning streak at night. The win was the most lopsided loss suffered by a defending national champion since 1984.

- Florida's 39-point margin of victory over Georgia on Nov. 1 marked the second-largest for the Gators in the series. The 49-10 victory marked the largest margin of defeat for Georgia under Mark Richt.

THE OFFENSE

- The Gators' offense was the highest scoring in the history of the SEC, totaling 611 points last season. Florida led the SEC in scoring (43.6), total offense (445.1), rushing offense (231.1), pass efficiency (170.7), first downs (306) and third-down conversions (.516).

- UF rushed for 231.1 yards per game, the highest average since the Emmitt Smith led the 1989 Gators to an average of 244.8 yards per game. In 2007, Florida rushed for 200.2 yards per game. This marked the first time since 1976-77 that UF had rushed for over 200 yards a game in two-straight seasons.

- Against the No. 1 defense on third down, UF was 7-of-13 (.538) versus Alabama on third downs. Tim Tebow completed four third-down passes, three of them for touchdowns, and ran the ball four times on third down, converting three for first downs.

- Alabama had given up a total of 28 points in its previous four games before surrendering 31 to the Gators.

- Over the last 10 games, Florida rushed for 34 touchdowns, which tied Oklahoma for the most in the nation over that span. In addition, UF's average yards per carry (6.5) lead the nation and its 262.1 rushing yards per game during the time frame are fourth nationally. UF's 46.9 points per game during the stretch are the second-highest total in the nation.

- Over the past five games, UF rushed for 1,448 yards, for an average of 289.6 yards per game. UF has averaged 6.9 yards per carry during the span and rushed for 16 touchdowns.

- Florida averaged 5.94 yards per rush last season, which was ahead of the school record of 5.86 (1976). UF averaged 7.1 yards per play on the year, just off of the record of 7.4 (1995, 2001). UF had a player rush for 100-or-more yards in a game last season eight times (five times in 2007).

- Florida scored a touchdown in 34 of their last 37 quarters. In addition, the Gator offense had just 15 three-and-outs in the last 40 quarters.

- After 14 games, UF averaged 3.37 points per offensive drive (563 offensive points/167 offensive drives). The average was the second-highest in the SEC since the conference started keeping the stat in 2000:

1. 3.49, Florida, 2007 (524 points on 150 drives)

2. 3.45, Florida, 2008 (569 points on 165 drives)

- Florida scored on its first drive in eight of 14 games last year (Miami, Tennessee, Arkansas, LSU, Vanderbilt, The Citadel, Florida State and Alabama).

- In all, 20 different players touched the ball on offense in 2008. Fourteen different players had at least one carry, after 11 had at least one in 2007. A dozen different players had at least one catch, which is one more than the total number that had at least one in 2007. Five different players led UF in rushing in a game last year and eight different players led UF in receptions.

WHAT'S NEW WITH THE GATORS...

- Since Coach Meyer's first year as a head coach at Bowling Green in 2001, his teams have had fewer offensive turnovers than any team in the nation (135 total).

- Under head coach Urban Meyer, the Gators have outrushed 47 of 53 opponents (10-of-12 in 2005, 13-of-14 in 2006, 11-of-13 in 2007, 13-of-14 in 2008). Florida has rushed for a touchdown in 37 of the last 38 games, totaling 99 rushing touchdowns in the span.

- UF is one of five teams in the nation (Oklahoma, Texas, Tulsa, Southern California) to pass for 110-or-more and rush for 110-or-more touchdowns since 2005.

- Since Coach Meyer's first season in 2005, the Gators have led the SEC in several offensive categories over the span:

- Florida's 153 total touchdowns at home since 2005 are fourth nationally and its 1,128 points at home over the span are fourth nationally. The Gators' 79 rushing touchdowns at home under Coach Meyer is the second-best total in the country. Florida's passer rating at home since 2005 (169.5) is second nationally.

QUARTERBACKS (FOR TEBOW RECORDS SEE PAGE 21 OF THIS RELEASE)

- Half of Tim Tebow's 12 rushing touchdowns last season came against top-25 teams. Tebow's six versus top-25 opponents were tied for fifth nationally among all players.

- Tim Tebow has thrown multiple touchdowns in 10-straight games, marking the longest streak of his career.

- Against Florida State, Tim Tebow rushed for one touchdown to bring his career total to 43. The total is a UF school record and is tied with Bo Jackson for fifth SEC history. Tebow's 35 rushing touchdowns over the past two seasons as a starting quarterback are as many or more than 50 Division I teams.

- Entering the BCS National Championship Game, Tim Tebow had not thrown an interception in 113 attempts before being picked off on his fifth attempt against Oklahoma. Earlier in 2008, Tebow established the school record for attempts without an interception (203). The streak ranked as the third-longest in SEC history. Tebow has not thrown an interception in 13 of the last 16 games. He was one of five players nationally to throw four-or-less interceptions last season (min. 225 att.).

- Tim Tebow is Florida's active career leader in rushing yards with 2,037, which is a school record for rushing yards by a quarterback. The previous career record for rushing yards by a quarterback at UF was 786 by Larry Libetore (1960-62).

- Over the past three seasons, Tim Tebow has been a part of teams that have gone 48-8 (.857) overall. As the starting quarterback at Nease High School as a senior in 2005, he helped lead the school to its first-ever Class 4A state championship. As a freshman at UF in 2006, he played in all 14 games in his role as the backup QB on the national championship squad. He is 22-5 (.815) as the starting QB at Florida.

CONFERENCE TITLE NOTES

- As a head coach, Urban Meyer has won four conference titles (2003, 2004 at Utah; 2006 and 2008 at Florida).

- Florida (9), Tennessee (5) and Georgia (3) are the only teams to represent the Eastern Division in the SEC Championship Game.

- In six of UF's nine SEC Championship Game appearances, the Gators have faced Alabama. Florida lost the initial title game in Birmingham in 1992, the very first Division I-A playoff game in history, 28-21, to an Alabama team that eventually won the national title that season. The Gators came back to beat the Crimson Tide, 28-13, in Birmingham in 1993 and then posted a dramatic, 24-23 victory in Atlanta in 1994 over an unbeaten 11-0 Tide squad. In 1996, the Gators once again beat Alabama, 45-30, in Atlanta on the way to a Sugar Bowl appearance and a 52-20 win over Florida State to claim the 1996 national title. In 1999, Alabama handed Florida a 34-7 loss in a highly-anticipated rematch of their earlier 40-39 overtime game in Gainesville won by the Tide. The Gators snapped the top-ranked Tide's 13-game winning streak with a 31-20 victory at the Georgia Dome on Dec. 6.

RUNNING BACKS

- Florida's running backs accounted for 1,877 yards on 264 carries (7.1 yards per carry) and they had 18 touchdowns. In 2007, the Florida running backs carried the ball 136 times for 761 yards and scored six rushing touchdowns. As a group, they averaged 5.6 yards per carry.

- Against Alabama, Jeff Demps had his seventh touchdown carry of the season, which led all UF running backs. Demps' average touchdown run last year was 32.7 yards (five of seven 36-or-more yards and three 40-or-more yards). He had the first receiving touchdown of his career against Kentucky on a 61-yard reception.

- In 2007, Kestahn Moore was the only Gator running back to rush for a touchdown. UF had five do so last season (Moore, Jeff Demps, Chris Rainey, Brandon James, Emmanuel Moody).

- UF running backs had three runs over 30 yards last year and they had 16 in 2008, 13 of which came from Jeff Demps (7) or Chris Rainey (6).

- Against The Citadel, Chris Rainey and Emmanuel Moody rushed for 142 yards and 116, respectively. The effort marked the fifth time last year that UF running backs were the leading and second-leading rusher for the Gators in a game. In 2007, UF never had two running backs finish in that order in a game.

- Jeff Demps had his second-straight 100-yard game with his 10-carry, 129-yard performance against LSU. He became the first true freshman to have back-to-back 100-yard games since Neal Anderson in 1982. Demps joins Anderson and Emmitt Smith as the only true freshmen in school history to have back-to-back 100-yard rushing games.

- Against Arkansas, Chris Rainey and Jeff Demps each rushed for 103 yards. Their efforts marked the first time in school history two freshman running backs carried for 100-or-more yards in the same game. Rainey had a 75-yard touchdown run in the game, which was the second-longest by a UF freshman in school history (John L. Williams, vs. W. Texas St., 1982, 86 yards).

- Emmanuel Moody led the Gators in rushing for the first time in his career with 55 yards at Tennessee. Moody finished the game with 6.1 yards per carry, which was the highest average for a Gator RB against the Vols since 1997 (Fred Taylor, 7.9, 17 carries for 134 yards).

- Against Hawaii, Jeff Demps had a 62-yard touchdown run. He rushed for more yards on that carry than the entire Hawaii offense did during the game. Demps' run was the third-longest by a UF freshman in the last 21 years and the second-longest touchdown run by any true freshman in the country this season:

1. Percy Harvin, 67 vs. Arkansas, 2006 (SEC Championship Game)

2. Emmitt Smith, 66 vs. Tulsa, 1987

3. Jeff Demps, 62 vs. Hawaii, 2008

WIDE RECEIVERS AND TIGHT ENDS

- Florida had four players with five or more receiving touchdowns (Harvin, Murphy, Hernandez, Nelson). No other team in the SEC had more than two players with five or more touchdowns. Only five other teams in the nation accomplished this (Tulsa had five players; Houston, Missouri, Oklahoma and Western Michigan each had four players).

- The Gators' wide receiving corp scored 41 total touchdowns (27 receiving, 12 rushing, 2 punt returns) on the season, the second-most by any group of receivers in the nation (Texas Tech had 45).

- Florida wide receivers had 27 receiving touchdowns, six more than any other receiving group in the SEC (UGA 21, Ole Miss 16). Florida receivers averaged 16.01 yards per catch as a group, second best in the SEC (Ole Miss 16.64). UF receivers totaled 2,241 yards, third-best among receiver groups in the SEC (UGA 2,889; Ole Miss 2,446).

- Percy Harvin scored a touchdown in each of the last 15 games he played in, a streak that led the nation. Harvin had a team-leading 17 touchdowns (7 receiving, 10 rushing) on 110 touches (40 receptions, 70 rushes), averaging a touchdown every 6.5 touches. His 17 touchdowns was the fourth-highest total in the nation among wide receivers. Harvin finished first on the team in receptions (40) and second in receiving yards (644). He also was the team's second-leading rusher (660 yards).

- Aaron Hernandez caught three touchdowns in the last two regular-season games (one vs. South Carolina, two at Florida State). He finished third on the team in receptions (34) and receiving yards (381). His five touchdowns last season tied for the lead among all tight ends in the SEC and his three against top-25 opponents ranked second nationally among all tight ends. Hernandez had nine catches for 151 yards and two touchdowns all of last season.

WHAT'S NEW WITH THE GATORS...

- Louis Murphy, who was the only Gator to make at least one catch in all 13 games in 2007, extended his streak to 27 (currently fourth-longest in the SEC) with two catches for 44 yards against Oklahoma. Six of his 12 career touchdowns came on passes of 30-or-more yards. Murphy finished first on the team in receiving yards (655) and second in receptions (38).

- Entering the season, David Nelson had a total of nine receptions (5 in 2006, 4 in 2007) for 111 yards and zero touchdowns. In 2008, he had 12 catches for 228 yards (19.0 avg.) and five touchdowns. Nelson had two catches for 33 yards in the BCS National Championship Game, including the game-clinching touchdown in the fourth quarter with 3:07 to play.

- Earlier in the season against South Carolina, Percy Harvin rushed for a career-high 167 yards, which was the second-highest total by any wide receiver in the nation in a game in the 2008 season. On the first play of the second half, Harvin carried the ball a career-long 80 yards for a touchdown. It tied for the seventh-longest run in UF history.

- With 660 rushing yards last season, Percy Harvin owns the top three spots in the Florida record book for rushing yards by a wide receiver (764, 2007; 428, 2006).

- Earlier in the season against Ole Miss, Percy Harvin had a career-highs in receptions (13) and receiving yards (186). His 13 receptions tied for the best in school history in a conference game (Travis McGriff, vs. USC, 1998) and tied for the second best overall in school history (Andre Caldwell, FAU, 2007). Harvin carried the ball 10 times for 82 yards and one touchdown and totaled a career-high 268 all-purpose yards. His 186 receiving yards were the most by a UF player since 2002 and rank as the 10th-highest single-game total in school history.

- Percy Harvin set a UF mark for career rushing yards by a receiver (1,852) and owns the single-season record for rushing yards by a receiver (764, 2007). Harvin averaged 9.5 yards per carry in his career, the highest career total of any player in the nation since 1996 with at least 100 carries. In 2008, Harvin led the country by averaging 9.4 yards on 70 carries. In 2007, he averaged 9.2 yards per carry (83 carries) and in 2006 he averaged 10.4 yards per rush (41 carries).

- Tate Casey caught 28 passes in his career, seven of which were for touchdowns.

OFFENSIVE LINE

- Florida's starting offensive line for its last game against Oklahoma in the BCS National Championship Game:

Center - Maurkice Pouncey	Started 11 games in 2007 at RG
Right Guard - Mike Pouncey	Moved back to OL after starting four games at DT in 2007
Left Guard - Carl Johnson	Made his eighth start in the last 10 games
Left Tackle - Phil Trautwein	Returned from injury after starting all 14 games in 2006 at LT
Right Tackle - Jason Watkins	Started each game in 2007 at LT

- In Florida's regular-season finale at Florida State, the Gators held Everette Brown to one tackle. Brown entered the game leading the nation in tackles for loss and ranked second in sacks.

- Maurkice Pouncey, Mike Pouncey, Phil Trautwein and Jason Watkins each started every game last year.

- Against Oklahoma, Jason Watkins had his 27th-consecutive start, which is the highest total among all Gators.

- Sacks allowed under Coach Meyer:

Year	Total	Rank (National/SEC)	Note
2005	35	T-94/9	One-or-less allowed in three games
2006	23	42/6	One-or-less allowed in seven games
2007	13	T-5/T-2	No sacks allowed in seven games
2008	16	13/2	One-or-less allowed in 11 of 14 games

- Maurkice Pouncey became the fourth different player in four years at starting center under head coach Urban Meyer at Florida (2005, Mike Degory; 2006, Steve Rissler; 2007, Drew Miller). The other three were all seniors.

THE DEFENSE

- Fourteen of the 22 players on the UF defensive two-deep were freshmen or sophomores. In their last game against Oklahoma, the Gators started eight underclassmen. In addition, three underclassmen started every game last season (Ahmad Black, Joe Haden and Major Wright).

- In the BCS National Championship against Oklahoma, the Gators held the highest-scoring offense in the history of college football to 14 points and 363 total yards.

- The Gators set a season high with eight quarterback hurries against Alabama, two apiece by Jermaine Cunningham, Carlos Dunlap and Brandon Spikes and one each by Dustin Doe and Will Hill.

WHAT'S NEW WITH THE GATORS...

- Over the past two seasons, UF has allowed Florida State to score one touchdown. When FSU scored in the third quarter, it marked the first TD by the Seminoles in 111 minutes versus Florida. In its visit to Tallahassee, the Florida defense held Florida State to 242 yards of total offense (UF had 317 rushing yards on the game).
- UF allowed only 8-of-24 (.333 pct.) fourth-down conversions last year, best in the SEC and 13th in the nation, after opponents converted 14-of-24 in 2007 (.583 pct.).
- Over the past four seasons, UF has ranked first in the SEC and sixth in the nation in rushing defense, allowing just 93.8 yards per game.
- In the last 77 games, the Gators have scored points off turnovers in 55 games. 411 of UF's points under head coach Urban Meyer have come off turnovers.

LINEBACKERS

- Brandon Spikes, Brandon Hicks and Ryan Stamper started Florida's last game against Oklahoma at Dolphin Stadium. The start was the sixth of Hicks' career. He had his first start at Arkansas and also started in each of the last five games of the season.
- Brandon Spikes had four interceptions last season against top-25 teams, which tied for second among all players nationally and the most by any linebacker in the country. Spikes is one of three linebackers since 1996 to have four interceptions against top-25 ranked teams in one season (Tulsa's Michael LeDet, 2004, and Michigan State's T.J. Turner, 1999, had four each).
- Brandon Spikes was one of five linebackers in the nation to have two interceptions returned for touchdowns last season. With his interception returned 12 yards for a touchdown in UF's game against South Carolina, he tied the Florida single-season record for returns for touchdown in a season.
- Against LSU, Brandon Spikes had the first two interceptions of his career. He was one of only 12 linebackers in the nation to have two interceptions in a game last year. Spikes has led the Gators in tackles in 10 of the last 18 games he has played in. In addition, he has recorded 10-or-more tackles in five of his last 14 outings.

SECONDARY

- Three different players returned an interception for a touchdown (tied school record). The five interception returns for touchdowns were tied for first nationally and were the most in a season in school history. UF's 527 interception return yards ranked second nationally and were the highest total in school history since the stat began being recorded in 1977.
- Against Oklahoma, Ahmad Black made his seventh interception of the season, which tied for third in school history. His total was tied for first nationally in 2008. Black returned two for touchdowns last year, which tied with 17 others for the most in the country.
- Florida averaged 21.4 yards per interception return last season, which ranked 11th nationally. In records dating back to 1977, the best total in school history was 24.9 in 2002.
- Joe Haden's 88-yard interception return against Georgia tied Anthonie Lott (1994 vs. LSU) for the fourth-longest interception return in Florida history. It also marked the longest return ever by a Florida player against Georgia. He had a pick in the fourth quarter versus Alabama and had a 24-yard return deep into Crimson Tide territory that enabled the Gators to run out the clock.
- Ahmad Black's 80-yard interception returned for a touchdown against Hawaii was the third-longest by any player in the SEC in records dating back to 1996. The return was the 11th-longest returned for a touchdown by any player in the nation this year and was the longest by an SEC player.
- Florida's defense has intercepted 111 passes since 2003, when Charlie Strong took over as defensive coordinator. The six-year total is the fourth-highest in the nation over the time period and is the best among SEC teams.
- Since 2003, 49 of Florida's 111 interceptions have come against teams ranked inside the top 25. The total leads the nation over the span.
- The returning members of the secondary had four career interceptions combined entering the 2008 season and matched that effort in the opener against Hawaii.

DEFENSIVE LINE

- In its last outing against Oklahoma, UF's starting defensive line was Justin Trattou, Lawrence Marsh, Terron Sanders and Jermaine Cunningham. The group combined for 51 starts last season.
- Carlos Dunlap led the Gators with nine and a half sacks last year, which also led the SEC. Last season, the Gators had 34 sacks after having 15 in 2007. UF's 34 sacks were the second-highest total in the SEC last season. Florida recorded four sacks in three of the last four games and five times last year.

SPECIAL TEAMS

- Jonathan Phillips connected on 78 PATs last season, which ranked second nationally. The total was also the highest in school history after he moved past Joey Iijas (72, 2007) with four in the SEC Championship Game. UF players own each of the top-five marks in the department in SEC history.

- After starting the season 11-for-11 on field-goal attempts, Jonathan Phillips missed a 42-yard attempt against Alabama. His streak of 11-consecutive field goals was the longest since Jeff Chandler had 16 in a row during the 2001 season (LSU game to the UT game). Until Dec. 6, UF had been the only school in the nation to be perfect on field goals in 2008.

- Phillips was tied for the national lead in field goal percentage (.923) among all kickers who attempted at least 10 field goals.

- Brandon James had three punt returns for 25 yards against Alabama to set a UF single-season record with 510 return yards on the year (prior record was Jacques Green, 392, 1997). He also set an SEC Championship Game record with five kickoff returns for 121 yards in the win over the Tide.

- Brandon James was one of seven players in the country to return two or more punts for touchdowns last season. James is one of only three players in the nation last season to have two punt returns for touchdown as well as have at least one receiving and rushing touchdown.

- The chart below shows how Brandon James has ranked in his career in punt returns:

Year	Punt Ret. Avg./Nat. Rank
2006	11.0/26th
2007	18.1/2nd
2008	13.8/12th

- Brandon James is second nationally on the NCAA active leader chart for career punt returns for a touchdown (4). He is fourth nationally in punt return avg. (13.4) and fourth in punt return yards (1,127). Against Ole Miss, James became UF's all-time career punt return yard leader.

- Brandon James had a 74-yard return against Hawaii and an 78-yard return at Tennessee to increase his career total to four. The total is tied for the UF school record (Jacques Green, 1995-96) and is tied for third with several others in SEC history. James has also tied the school record for punt returns for touchdowns in a season (two, five others, last Lito Sheppard, 2000). Half of his career punt returns for touchdowns have come against Tennessee. Since 1996, there have been seven punts returned by a Florida player over 70 yards and James has been responsible for five of those.

- Chas Henry averaged 43.4 yards per punt on his 44 kicks last season, which was third in the SEC. In the BCS National Championship Game, Henry averaged 51.7 yards on three punts. Against Alabama, Henry booted a 57-yard punt and had an average of 47.7 yards per kick, which was an SEC Championship Game record. He had 15 punts of 50-or-more yards last year and landed 21 punts inside the 20-yard line after doing so eight times in 2007.

- Against South Carolina, redshirt senior long snapper James Smith recovered the first fumble of his career on the one-yard line. In addition, Bobby Kane made his first career punt (44 yards and landed inside of the South Carolina 20).

- The Gators matched a school record with three blocked kicks (two punts, one FG) earlier this year against Kentucky.

- Against Vanderbilt, Carlos Dunlap blocked two punts. He has now blocked more punts (3) than any other player under Coach Meyer.

- This chart below shows how UF has done in punt return defense the last two years:

Year	Returns	Yards	Notes
2007	5	22	Lowest total in the nation, new school record
2008	14	78	Ranked 12th nationally

- The chart below reflects how Urban Meyer-coached teams make a difference on special teams:

Punt Returns for a TD Under Urban Meyer (8)		Blocked Kicks Under Urban Meyer (45)
2008	2	2008	9 (5 punts, 3 FG, 1 XP)
2007	1	2007	4 (4 punts)
2006	1	2006	8 (5 punts, 2 FG, 1XP)
2005	1	2005	5 (2 punts, 2 FG, 1 XP)
2004	1	2004	9 (7 punts, 2 FG)
2003	1	2003	2 (2 FG)
2002	0	2002	8 (7 punts, 1 FG)
2001	1	2001	1 (1 FG)

- Since his first year as a head coach in 2001, Urban Meyer's teams have blocked the third-highest total number of kicks among all teams nationally:

1. Texas	51
2. Fresno State	49
3. Urban Meyer-Coached Teams	45

- Under head coach Urban Meyer, UF has been perfect on executing fake punts on fourth down (7-of-7):

Date	Opponent	Converted
10/1/05	at Alabama	Everett, 32-yard reverse
10/29/05	vs. Georgia	Wilbur, 20-yard run

WHAT'S NEW WITH THE GATORS...

1/2/06	vs. Iowa	Latsko, five-yard run
12/2/06	vs. Arkansas	Cornelius, 17-yard run
1/1/07	vs. Michigan	Henry, 15-yard pass to Hernandez
8/30/08	vs. Hawaii	Henry, 17-yard run
10/4/08	at Arkansas	James, 10-yard run

- Lowest Total Punt Return Yards Allowed 2005-08

1. Florida	231
2. Iowa	300
3. Ohio State	338

THE STAFF

- For the first time since his initial season, head coach Urban Meyer introduced new members of the coaching staff, as the following assistants were in their first season in Gainesville: Dan McCarney (Assistant Head Coach, Defense/Defensive Line); Kenny Carter (Running Backs); Vance Bedford (Cornerbacks).

- There were 11 new coordinators at SEC schools last fall. Florida and Vanderbilt were the only two schools in the league that have had their offensive and defensive coordinators in the position at their school each of the last three seasons.

- The Florida defensive staff had 102 years of combined collegiate coaching experience: Chuck Heater (32), Charlie Strong (25), Vance Bedford (15), Dan McCarney (30). Including the 2008 season, the defensive staff had 20 years combined of experience as defensive coordinators.

- Defensive coordinator Charlie Strong was in his sixth season at the position. The last time UF had a defensive coordinator for that length of time was Doug Knotts, who held the position from 1970-78. Only Knotts and Gene Ellenson (1963-69) have held the position longer than Coach Strong in UF records dating back to 1960.

- Two of the 2008 Broyles Award finalists, Charlie Strong (Florida) and Kevin Wilson (Oklahoma), were in the same finalist class in 2000, but with different teams (Strong at South Carolina, Wilson at Northwestern). Only three assistants in the 13-year history of the Broyles Award have been finalists at two different schools. Norm Chow was the third (BYU, 1996; Southern California, 2002/Winner).

MEYER & DONOVAN LEAD DRIVE TO RAISE $50 MILLION FOR UF'S FLORIDA OPPORTUNITY SCHOLARS PROGRAM

- Urban Meyer and Billy Donovan agreed to lead a campus charge to raise $50 million for UF's Florida Opportunity Scholars Program in October of 2008. The program was created by UF President Bernie Machen to provide financial assistance to first-generation, financially disadvantaged students working towards a bachelor's degree.

SUCCESS IN THE DESERT CAPPED MAGICAL 2006 CAMPAIGN

- With its 41-14 victory over Ohio State in the 2007 Tostitos BCS National Championship Game, Florida collected its second national title in school history. The Gators finished the 2006 season with a 13-1 record, establishing a single-season school record for victories.

- UF's 2006 schedule was ranked as the toughest in the nation by the NCAA. Both of Florida's national titles have come in a year that saw them play the country's most challenging slate, as they also held that honor in 1996. The only other school to capture the national crown while playing the nation's toughest schedule was Colorado, which did so in 1990.

RECAPPING UF'S CHAMPIONSHIP RUN IN '96

- After posting a 12-1 record in 1995, with the one setback coming at the hands of Nebraska in the national title game in the Fiesta Bowl, the Gators opened the 1996 campaign with high expectations once again. After posting a 35-29 win (in which UF jumped to a 35-0 lead in the first 20 minutes) at Tennessee in the third week of the season, in a much-hyped contest between Danny Wuerffel and UT's Peyton Manning, the Gators moved into the number one spot in the polls. They held that spot until the last regular-season game of the year, when they suffered a 24-21 setback to number-two ranked Florida State in Tallahassee and fell to a fourth-place ranking in the national polls. Fate, however, would bring these two state rivals back together six weeks later in New Orleans.

- A week after the loss to Florida State, Texas upset number-three ranked Nebraska in the Big 12 Championship Game. On that same night, the Gators defeated Alabama, 45-30, in Atlanta in the SEC Championship Game behind a six-touchdown performance by Wuerffel, which clinched the Heisman Trophy that he received the following week in New York. Entering the bowl season ranked third, the Gators then saw Ohio State knock off second-ranked Arizona State at the Rose Bowl in a dramatic last-second victory on New Year's Day. That result now meant that the Jan. 2 battle in New Orleans with top-ranked Florida State was for the 1996 national championship.

- The Gators put together a tremendous all-around performance in posting a 52-20 victory over the Seminoles, which led to a consensus national championship. The 32-point margin of victory over FSU was the largest versus a top-ranked team in bowl history.

THE STADIUM...

ATTENDANCE NOTES

■ In 2007, Florida ranked eighth nationally in average attendance with a total of 90,388.

■ The attendance of 90,833 for the Miami game on Sept. 6, 2008 established a school record. The previous school record of 90,716 was set against Tennessee on Sept. 17, 2005. The school-record-setting crowd was the largest ever to watch a football game in the state of Florida. The state has hosted 13 Super Bowls, three BCS national title games and has featured a team that went on to win at least a share of the national title in a bowl game 19 times.

■ The attendance for the '05 season opener (90,707) was the largest opening-day crowd in Florida history. The previous record was 90,011 against San Jose State in the 2003 opener. The Gators opened the 2004 season against Eastern Michigan in front of a crowd of 90,009.

■ The attendance of Florida's game at Tennessee (109,061) on Sept. 18, 2004, was the largest ever to see a Gator team play.

■ The attendance for the 2004 Florida-Georgia game was an Alltel Stadium record (84,753). The previous record of 84,433 was set at the Florida-Georgia game in 2002.

■ The Gators have ranked among the nation's top-15 schools in average home attendance in each of the last 26 years (1982-2007) and have ranked among the nation's top-nine schools in each of the last 17 years (1991-2007).

■ UF's average of 90,409 fans per home game in 2006 ranked as the best single-season mark in school history. The mark bettered that of the 2005 season, in which the Gators averaged 90,406.

■ Florida maintains a current streak of 123-consecutive home sellouts dating back to the 1989 season. Here is where UF ranks nationally for current consecutive sellouts:

- 1. Nebraska 297
- 2. Notre Dame 205
- 3. Michigan 154
- 4. FLORIDA..... 123

BEN HILL GRIFFIN STADIUM AT FLORIDA FIELD "THE SWAMP"

■ A look at the Gators at home since 1990:
 Overall: 106-13
 SEC: 58-9
 SEC East: 35-2
 SEC West: 23-7
 Non-Conference: 48-4
 Top-25 Teams: 23-10
 Top-10 Teams: 12-6
 Top-5 Teams: 9-4
 Unranked Teams: 82-3
 At Night (6 p.m. or later) 35-4

■ Florida's home winning percentage of .891 (106-13) ranks first in the nation since 1990.

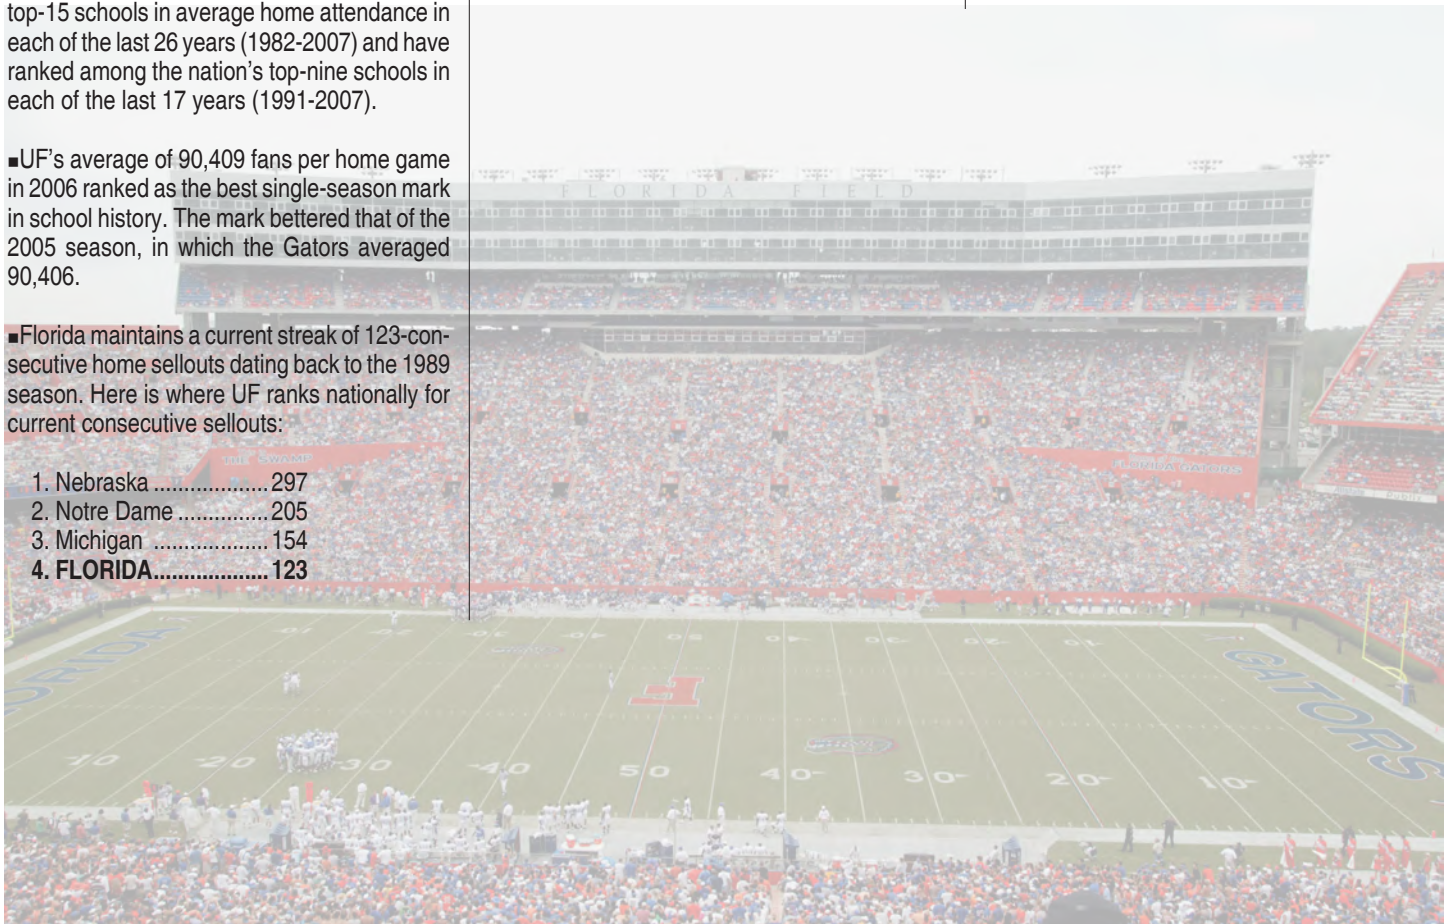

■ The Gators had two significant streaks at "The Swamp" in the 1990s: a 23-game win streak from 1990-93 and a 30-game streak from 1994-99. In 119 home games since 1990, UF has scored 31 or more points 85 times and has held its opponent to 14 or less points 64 times.

■ Since 1990, UF has outscored its opponents at "The Swamp" by a combined total of 4,884-1,847 (an average of 41.04 to 15.5 for an average victory margin of 25.5).

■ Since 1990, Florida has lost only seven times at home to a team ranked below the top five.

LEGENDARY STATUS...

THE ONLY SCHOOL IN THE NATION TO:

- Capture national titles in years they faced nation's toughest schedule. According to NCAA statistics, Florida faced the No. 1 schedule in the land in 1996 and 2006.

- One of three schools to capture multiple national championships in the last 13 years and the Gators have played in four national title contests in the past 14 years.

- One of only two schools in the nation with three quarterbacks to win the Heisman Trophy and one of three schools nationally to have multiple Heisman winners since 1996.

- One of three schools in major college history, and the only one in the SEC, to win at least nine games for a period of 12-consecutive years (1990-2001).

- One of six schools in major college history to win 100 games during a decade (102 wins in the 1990s).

- The only school in modern major college history to score 500 or more points for a period of four-straight years (1993-96).

- In the history of the NFL Draft, Florida and Miami (Fla.) hold the distinction of being the only schools represented for the most consecutive years in the first round of the Draft. From 1983-91, UF had at least one first-round draft choice for nine-straight seasons. Miami's 14-year streak, which began in 1995, is active.

- One of only four schools in the nation to have multiple recipients of the Draddy Trophy, which is presented by the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame to the nation's top football scholar-athlete.

- The only school in the nation that can boast of a Heisman Trophy recipient (Danny Wuerffel), who also received the Draddy Trophy, which is presented by the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame to the country's top football scholar-athlete.

THE ONLY SCHOOL IN THE SEC TO:

- Have three Heisman Trophy winners: Steve Spurrier (1966), Danny Wuerffel (1996) and Tim Tebow (2007).

- Win at least 10 games for a period of six-straight years (1993-98), becoming one of only three schools in major college history to accomplish this feat.

- Post a perfect 8-0 conference record in back-to-back seasons (1995-96).

- Rank in the top 15 of the final polls in 12-consecutive seasons (1990-2001), one of only four schools in major college history to do this.

- The Gators' 87-13 (.870) SEC record from 1990 to the seventh conference game of 2001 is the best league record over a 100 SEC game-time period in conference history.

- UF holds the SEC record for most consecutive seasons (12) with at least six league wins, a streak that doubled the previous record of six set by Alabama from 1961-66.

- One of only two schools in SEC history to win four-consecutive league championships (1993-96).

- Florida has played in nine of the 17 SEC Championship Games and has won eight SEC titles over the last 18 years.

FLORIDA & THE NFL...

- The 2008 National Football League season began on Thursday, Sept. 4. All notes below reflect 2008 opening-day totals and the 2008 NFL Draft.

GATORS AND THE NFL DRAFT

- UF had at least 40 players chosen in the NFL Draft for the decades of 1950, 1960, 1970, 1980 and 1990. UF already has 47 selections from the years 2000-08. The total is already the highest amount for any decade in school history.

- Since the inaugural NFL Draft in 1936, a Florida player has been selected in the first-round 38 times, covering 28 separate seasons. It is the seventh-most number of years for a top pick by any school in the nation.

- The Gators have had a first-round pick in nine of the last 11 years and 18 of the past 24. Over the past three years, Derrick Harvey (Jacksonville), Jarvis Moss (Denver) and Reggie Nelson (Jacksonville) have all been selected in the first round.

- Florida led the nation in 2007 with nine former players selected in the NFL Draft and there were 18 members of its 2006 national championship team either drafted or signed as a free agent.

- UF has had six defensive linemen drafted under Urban Meyer, the highest total in the nation over the past three drafts.

- The Gators had at least one NFL first-round draft choice for nine-straight seasons (1983-91). This marked the second-longest streak by any college in the history of the draft.

FLORIDA NFL NOTES

- Florida had 30 players on 2008 NFL opening-day rosters, which was the 10th-highest total in the nation. In 2005, UF's 37 players were tied for the second-highest total of any school in the country. Overall, the Gators had 39 players on NFL rosters during the 2007 regular season.

- The Gators had at least one player (including practice squads) on 18 of the 32 NFL teams last season. Here is the breakdown of former Gators on active NFL rosters: 7 DE, 5 WR, 4 LB, 3 CB, 3 S, 2 DT, 2 RB, 1 TE, 1 OG, 1 OT, 1 QB.

- The 2008 Super Bowl marked the 25th time that at least one former UF player was in the title game.

- Eleven former Gators have combined to win 17 Super Bowl Championship rings. Emmitt Smith and Godfrey Miles won three apiece, while Don Chandler and Wilber Marshall each won two.

- Eighteen former Florida players have been invited to play in the NFL Pro Bowl.

Former Gator star Emmitt Smith became the NFL's all-time leading rusher on Sunday, Oct. 27, 2002, with an 11-yard run against the Seattle Seahawks in Dallas. Smith surpassed the long-time record held by Walter Payton, who rushed for 16,726 yards.

On April 12, 2003, Emmitt Smith was honored at halftime of the 2003 Orange and Blue Spring game.

Smith was a three-time All-American at the UF from 1987-89. He established 58 school records in three seasons, including a career rushing mark of 3,928 yards. Following his junior season with the Gators, Smith was a first-round selection in the 1990 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys. On Friday, Feb. 4, 2005, Smith retired from the NFL. Smith starred for 13 seasons with the Dallas Cowboys and spent his final two seasons with the Arizona Cardinals. He finished his career with 18,355 rushing yards and 164 rushing touchdowns, both of which are the highest totals ever posted in NFL history.
