

Jeremy Miranda

Volunteer Coach

Volunteer Assistant Coach Jeremy Miranda will provide his innovative and artistic touch to the Gator gymnastics routines again this season. Miranda oversees all creative aspects (music and choreography) with regard to the floor routines.

Prior to joining the Gator program in the summer of 2007, Miranda was the University of Nebraska women's gymnastics team manager for the 2006 and 2007 seasons. While at Nebraska, he choreographed multiple floor routines, as well as assisted the coaching staff with various duties. In addition, Miranda also served as a club coach for the Nebraska School of Gymnastics from 2005-07, coaching a vast array of classes ranging from preschool to level 10. Miranda has also spent several summers as a master staff instructor at the world-renowned Woodward Gymnastics Camp in Woodward, Pa. Miranda has served on the coaching staff at other various summer camps and clinics across the country, including the University of Georgia Camp and the University of Nebraska Camp.

A notable gymnast in his own right, Miranda was a level 10 gymnast who trained dually in Chamberlain, S.D., as well as at Horizon's Gymnastics Academy in Port Charlotte, Fla. In 2005, Miranda culminated his gymnastics career with a co-national championship finish on the floor exercise at Junior Olympic Nationals, as well as an eighth-place finish on the vault.

A native of Chamberlain, S.D., Miranda attended the University of Nebraska as a Chancellor's Leadership Honors Scholar from 2005-07 where he satisfied all general education requirements. He is currently pursuing a bachelor's degree in dance at the University of Florida. Jeremy has one sister, Jennifer (20), and one brother, Joshua (17). His mother, Bernie, works as the head Postmaster in Oacoma, S.D., and his father, Tom, is a professional hunter featured regularly on ESPN Outdoors.
