

TUNE INTO GATOR SOCCER MATCHES HOME OR AWAY

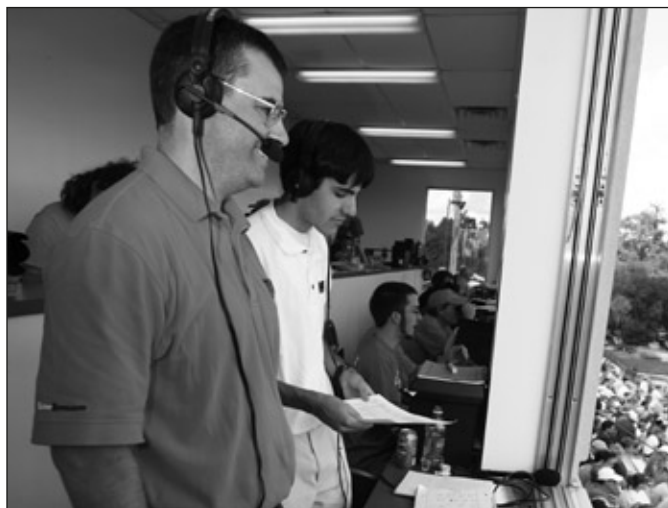

Seventeen University of Florida soccer matches will be broadcast over the internet in 2008. In addition, up to 10 matches are planned to be broadcast on WRUF-AM. No matter where Gator fans are located, they can hear the play-by-play action of the matches at www.GatorZone.com. The "player" software (Windows Media Player or Real Player) needed to hear the internet broadcast is available for free at the same site. This is the eighth-straight season that Gator soccer has been broadcast on the internet.

The internet and radio broadcasts begin Friday, Aug. 29 at 8 p.m. with the Gators' home opener versus UCF. Adam Schick will call the Gator matches in 2008 and will be joined by Matthew Stubbington for the home action. The complete schedule can be found below:
