Karyn Hall started every match (100 consecutive starts) that the Gators played during her collegiate career. She was a member of two Gator College Cup teams (1998, 2001).

Danielle Fotopoulos finished her collegiate career as the all-time NCAA Division I leader (men or women) in goals (118) and points (284). In her two-year Florida career, she turned in 66 goals, which ranks No. 3 on the Gator career chart. Above, Fotopoulos' NCAA record-setting goal. Photo A, she shoots; Photo B, she watches it go into the goal; Photo C, she realizes that goal No. 104 has been scored.

INDIVIDUAL RECORDS - CAREER (TOP 5)

Two Gators rank among the NCAA Division I Career Top 10 for goals and points. Danielle Fotopoulos (left), who played her final two seasons for UF, is the NCAA career leader for goals (118) and points (284). Abby Wambach holds the No. 7 position in both points (242) and goals (93).

Brittni Goodwin patrolled between the posts in more than 70 percent of the total minutes played to lead all goalkeepers that competed in two or more seasons with the Gators.

Jordan Kellgren owns the Gator career record for solo shutouts with 21 in her four-year Florida career.

Katie Johnston leads Florida field players all-time with 57 complete matches played during her Gator career.

Florida is third among the nation's programs in the number of players listed on the NCAA Division I 40 goals - 40 assists chart. The four Gators that are a part of this exclusive club include Danielle Fotopoulos (118 goals, 48 assists), Abby Wambach (93 goals, 50 assists), Andi Sellers (71 goals, 43 assists) and Melissa Pini (60 goals, 40 assists).
