CONTACTS

Overseeing the publicity for the men's tennis program is Communications Intern Kate Manly.

MEDIA SERVICES

Members of the media are supplied with weekly release packages containing updated statistics, features and information regarding upcoming events. On match days, the Communications staff will distribute match programs, team and individual statistics, and all post match information.

FACILITY

The Ring Complex is located on S.W. 2nd Avenue on the UF campus. The press box accommodates 15 members of the working press on two levels and is equipped with two phone lines and electrical outlets. The area is open, but covered. Photographers MUST check in with a member of the Communications staff for designated photo locations.

PARKING

Parking is available in the immediate area of the tennis stadium, but spaces are limited.

GATOR SCORELINE

The Communications office provides a daily telephone service with updated scores and information on all Gator sports activities. Call (352) 375-4683 ext. 3020.

GATORZONE

In its seventh season in the fall of 2008, the "GatorZone" television program features all the latest news and updates on Gator athletics. This weekly show focusing entirely on the Gators airs on Wednesdays at 5:30 p.m., with a same day re-air at 10 p.m. on Sun Sports Network. Jeff Cardozo and Larry Vettel host this half-hour show. "GatorZone" kicks off with a news package recapping the past week's big stories in Gator sports. Later in the show, GatorZone features interviews with various coaches and in-depth stories on Gator student-athletes. The show wraps up each week with a preview of Gator sports events in the week ahead.

WORLD WIDE WEB

www.Gatorzone.com

The University Athletic Association's World Wide Web site features news, scores and statistics for all UF sports. Florida men's tennis fans who are unable to attend home matches can follow along live scoring available on the home page of www.GatorZone.com
