

Roland Thornqvist

Head Coach (Four Years at UF; Nine Seasons Overall)

2004 SEC Coach of the Year

His fourth year as head coach of the University of Florida women's tennis program might be one of the best coaching seasons Roland Thornqvist has produced during his nine years as a collegiate head coach. The 2004-05 season wasn't the typical Florida tennis campaign, but somehow the Gators found their way back into a familiar position of advancing to the semifinals of the NCAA Championships for the 16th time in the last 18 years, completing the season with a 22-3 record.

Sure, Florida also captured its fourth consecutive and 14th overall Southeastern Conference Tournament title. The team finished tied for second in the SEC regular season standings, as the squad has finished either first or runner-up for the 26th straight time — every year in league history.

However, even before those events took place, the 2004-05 Gators were faced with significant setbacks. The team lost three starters from the previous season, including senior-to-be Alexis Gordon, who left the team for personal reasons one year removed after earning the No. 1 singles ranking in the country. Gordon's departure meant junior Jennifer Magley and UF's lone senior Zerene Reyes were forced higher in the lineup than expected. Combine that with three freshmen - the most on a Gator roster since the 1996-97 season - and coaches Roland Thornqvist and Dave Balogh had their work cut out for themselves.

Thornqvist completed his third year at UF guiding the 2004 Gators to a 23-1 overall record and a No. 3 final national ranking. Additionally, UF was named to the ITA All-Academic Team by posting higher than a 3.2 team grade point average during the year.

Despite annoying injuries throughout the season, the 2004 Gators successfully defended their Southeastern Conference regular season and tournament titles. The squad extended its overall winning streak to 40 consecutive dual matches – the third longest streak in program history. Thornqvist's accomplishments were recognized by his colleagues, who named him the SEC Coach of the Year. UF was listed at No. 1 in two rankings periods during the 2004 season and received the top seed in the NCAA Championships.

The 2003 season was a magical one for the Florida women's tennis program and for Thornqvist. The Gators captured their fourth overall NCAA championship with a thrilling 4-3 upset over top-seeded and two-time defending champion Stanford. In the process, Thornqvist became just the seventh different coach ever to win an NCAA women's tennis title. At age 33 (born March 3, 1970), he also became the second youngest ever to hoist the trophy. USC's Dave Borelli was the youngest, winning the title in 1983 when he was 32 (born Feb. 4, 1951).

While the national championship certainly was the highlight of the season, that was not the only accomplishment. Florida captured the 2003 SEC regular season title before winning the 2003 SEC Tournament crown. The Gators returned to the National Team Indoor Championships for the first time since 1999 and reached the final before losing a 4-3 battle to Duke. Florida received a program-record-tying eight individual bids into the NCAA Singles and Doubles Championships, including a program-high three doubles teams.

On June 22, 2001, the University of Florida Athletic Association and Athletics Director Jeremy Foley introduced Thornqvist as its new women's tennis coach. He took over the program from Andy Brandi, who resigned on May 29, 2001 after 17 successful seasons with the Florida program.

The Gators have not missed a beat under Thornqvist's direction.

During the 2002 season, his first with the Gators, Florida compiled a remarkable 24-2 overall record and finished with a No. 2 national ITA rank. UF won the SEC Tournament title after entering the event as the No. 2 seed. The Gators were the No. 1 ranked team when the March 26, 2002 Omni Hotels Collegiate rankings were released, marking the first time Florida has been at the top spot since May 11, 1999, when the Gators were ranked No. 1 the entire season but lost to Stanford in the NCAA final to end the year ranked second. The Gators remained at the top spot for the next period before dropping one position after losing to Georgia on April 7. UF was awarded the No. 1 seed in the 64-team NCAA Tournament, and reached the NCAA Final before losing to host Stanford in the championship bout.

Individually in 2002, senior Jessica Lehnhoff flourished despite the coaching change. She received the No. 1 singles ranking in the April 17, April 24 and May 1st listings, becoming the first Gator to earn the nation's top ranking since Jill Craybas ended the 1996 season at the No. 1 spot. Lehnhoff became the first player in UF history to reach the semifinals of the NCAA Singles and NCAA Doubles Championships in the same year; reaching the final match of the singles tournament.

Florida accomplished all of this and more despite having just six players on its entire 2002 roster. When Thornqvist accepted the head coaching position at Florida on June 22, 2001, he inherited a Gator squad that had just four players. So his first task with assistant coach Dave Balogh was to recruit two more athletes just to comprise a six-player roster. Thornqvist and Balogh were at the 'right place at the right time' when Alexis Gordon was searching for a school to attend and would be able to join the team during the Fall of 2001. Then Zerene Reyes, a native of Mexico City, Mexico, joined the squad in January – finally completing the six-player

Thornqvist joined the Florida program with a five-year record of 75-50 after coaching at the University of North Carolina for the past three seasons (42-30) and at Kansas from 1997-98 (33-20). Each team advanced to the NCAA Championships under Thornqvist, with the 1998 Kansas team advancing to the Round of 16. In his premiere season at UNC in 1999, he led the Tar Heels to the NCAA Second Round in their first-ever NCAA appearance.

"Ever since I started playing tennis, Florida tennis has been THE program. To have the opportunity to lead the Florida women's team is just really a dream come true. Andy Brandt built a program that is respected and envied across the nation. I am honored to be following in his footsteps," Thornqvist said. "One thing that really attracted me was Jeremy Foley. I liked the way he operates and he is straight forward, very goal-oriented and driven and that is exactly how I see myself.

"Nobody has higher expectations than I do. It's always been that way," he continued. "The University of Florida has always had the best players in the country and when we go out to recruit we look for the same type of players. We will look for talented, hard-working, self-motivated individuals who want to learn and who want to succeed in the team and individual environments. The leadership has changed, but the goals will certainly stay the same."

Thornqvist returned to his alma mater in June of 1998 to take a North Carolina team that posted a 1998 record of 5-17 to a record of 16-9 and its first-ever NCAA berth in 1999. The Tar Heels also recorded their first NCAA Tournament victory in 1999, taking a 5-4 win over Washington in the opening round. His Tar Heel teams also advanced to the NCAA Tournament in 2000 and 2001, reaching the second round again in 2001. The UNC team finished the 2001 season ranked No. 17 in the final Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA) poll - the highest final position in the history of the Tar Heel program.

In his first head coaching assignment at Kansas, Thornqvist led the Jayhawks to a second-place finish in the 1997 Big 12 Conference standings and a No. 1 regional ranking. The 1998 Jayhawk squad compiled a 18-6 record, won the NCAA Central Regional Championship at Brigham Young University and advanced to the NCAA round of 16 before losing to Georgia.

Prior to his tenure at KU, Thornqvist spent 1994-96 as the assistant men's tennis coach at UNC. Thornqvist also played professional tennis for one year after completing his collegiate eligibility, attaining a world ranking of No. 290 in singles.

Thornqvist established himself as one of the top players in the history of the Atlantic Coast Conference during his collegiate career. He was a three-time first-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection, the 1993 ACC Player of the Year, a 1992 and 1993 first-team All-American and a 1992 and 1993 NCAA Tournament quarterfinalist in singles. In 1992, he led the Tar Heels to the ACC Championship and to the quarterfinals of the NCAA Tournament. The Tar Heels also made the NCAA Tournament during his senior season, advancing to the round of 16. Thornqvist won the 1993 Rolex National Indoor Singles Championship as a senior. In both 1992 and 1993, he won the ITA's Rafael Osuna National Sportsmanship Award. He is the only college player in history to win that award twice. Thornqvist was the No. 4 ranked collegiate singles player in the country his senior year.

A native of Stockholm, Sweden, Thornqvist received his bachelor's degree in economics from UNC in 1996. He played for the Tar Heels from 1990-93, transferring from Elon College where he played one year and won the NAIA singles and doubles championships as a freshman in 1990. He also led Elon to the NAIA team championship that year.

Thornqvist is married to Nan Thornqvist and they are the parents of MacLaine, who was born in November 1999 and Whitney, who was born in January 2001.

Dave Balogh

Associate Head Coach
(Five Years at UF)

Dave Balogh (pronounced BAY-log), who in 2004-05 completed his fifth year on the Gator sidelines, is one of the most highly respected coaches on the collegiate circuit. For his efforts and contributions toward the University of Florida women's tennis program, UF athletics director Jeremy Foley promoted Balogh to the position of Associate Head Coach in September 2003. He had worked with the Gators as an assistant coach for three years prior to this elevation.

"Dave is really an extension of me. He has the same philosophy in how to coach the team, how to recruit and how to create the atmosphere we want to have in our clubhouse," UF head coach Roland Thornqvist said. "Working with Dave makes everything fun because he's always positive and is a great guy. He has a tremendous knowledge of the game. The University of Florida and myself are very fortunate to have him on our team. Dave is invaluable to me and this program."

During his four years at UF, Balogh has helped the Gators capture the 2003 NCAA championship, three Southeastern Conference regular season titles and four SEC Tournament crowns, while compiling a 122-10 dual match record (entering the NCAA Round of 16).

At the end of the 2001-02 season, the rest of the country acknowledged what the Gators already knew, as Balogh was recognized by his peers as the 2002 ITA National Assistant Coach of the Year, becoming the first Gator coach to receive such an honor.

A four-year letterwinner of the University of Florida men's tennis program, Balogh joined the Gator women's tennis team as an assistant coach on July 1, 2000 under former head coach Andy Brandi.

Balogh, who is a life-long native of Gainesville, played tennis for former men's coach Ian Duvenhage from 1993 to 1996, when the team ranked among the top 15 nationally all four years. The Gators captured the 1994 SEC championship during Balogh's tenure on the team.

Balogh was an assistant coach with the Florida State University women's tennis team for the dual match portion of the 2000 season. Prior to his four-month stint in Tallahassee, Balogh was an assistant at Vanderbilt, where the Commodores ended the 1999 season ranked 13th in the country.

From 1996 to 1998, he was the assistant head professional at DB Racquet Club in Gainesville, where he coached former Gator great Mark Merklein and worked with UF standout Jill Craybas. Balogh received an offer to work with tennis-great Jana Novotna, but was unable due to an elbow injury.

Balogh earned a bachelor's of science degree in recreation in 1996. As a student-athlete, Balogh received the 1996 Presidential Recognition Award in honor of his outstanding achievement and contributions to the University of Florida by then-President John Lombardi. That same year, he also received the Office of Student Life Achievement Award, given for his outstanding achievement in academics, athletics and community service.

Each August, Balogh organizes the Merrill Lynch Tennis Pro-Am held in Gainesville. The event benefits Big Brothers/Big Sisters and draws former Gator stars from various sports back to the Gainesville courts to participate.

Balogh married the former Melissa Clark of Gainesville in August 2000. The two became parents for the first time on Feb. 18, 2004, when Cade Kelly Balogh was born.
